CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Final Results

Despite facing a volatile economic environment, the Group continued to grow steadily in 2011 thanks in large part to the continuous expansion of our core businesses through new acquisitions and organic growth, a strengthened market-leading position, and a focused consumer business platform. These have positioned us better to forge ahead with our goal of becoming the largest consumer goods company in China.

For the year ended 31 December 2011, the Group's consolidated turnover amounted to approximately HK$110,164 million, representing a year-on-year increase of 26.4%. Consolidated profit attributable to the Company's shareholders amounted to HK$2,832 million, representing a decrease of 50.1% year-on-year. Excluding the after-tax effect of asset revaluation and major disposals, the Group's underlying consolidated profit attributable to the Company's shareholders contributed by the core businesses for the year ended 31 December 2011 would have decreased by 0.3%. The imposition of the Urban Maintenance and Construction Tax and Education Surcharges on foreign enterprises since the end of 2010, higher labour costs and the accelerated expansion of our retail network into new regions have raised cost pressures, thereby affecting the Group's results during the year under review.

Together with the interim dividend of HK$0.15 per share, the total dividend for 2011 will amount to HK$0.47 per share (2010: HK$0.52 per share).

Strategy Implementation

In 2011, our strategy of focusing on the development of our core consumer businesses continued to pay off as we have further consolidated the leading positions of each of our core businesses of retail, beer, food and beverage in China. For instance, our multi-format retail chain has been a leading retail chain group in China, with its turnover reaching HK$70,088 million in 2011. "雪花 Snow" is the world's best-selling single beer brand and had sales volume of approximately 9,172,000 kiloliters in 2011. The Group's food division is also the largest supplier of Chinese foodstuffs in Hong Kong and one of the leading integrated food suppliers in China. Meanwhile, led by our flagship "恰寶C'estbon" purified water brand, the total sales volume of the Group's beverage division was approximately 2,642,000 kiloliters in 2011, solidifying its leading position in Guangdong and enhancing its penetration in other provinces.

Leveraging our extensive retail network of around 4,000 stores in China, we strive to strengthen the market position of our retail division by committing to a strategy of national expansion that emphasizes strong regional leadership and synergistic opportunities with our multi-format business platform. In 2011, we continued to expand our footprint in various markets by establishing new supermarkets and specialty stores. We also improved our competitive edge by enriching our product mix, boosting sales of our mid to high-end products and improving our customers' shopping experience.

Moreover, the Group signed an agreement to acquire a 100% interest in Jiangxi Hongkelong Department Store Investment Company Limited in July 2011. The acquisition will enable the Group to expand its retail business into Jiangxi Province and gain an advantageous market position in the region. Meanwhile, the Group has completed the acquisition from the parent company the entire equity interest in a retail drug store chain in the third quarter of 2011. The 152-store retail network will create synergies with the Group's healthcare retail chains and will enhance its pharmaceutical product mix. These two acquisitions will further enhance our network and competitiveness in China's retail market, and propel the expansion of our retail business.

Despite the increasingly intense competition in China's beer industry, our beer division continued to be a leader in the China market as the result of the establishment of new breweries, our concerted efforts in brand building and successful acquisitions. Several investments were made during the year, including the equity stake acquisitions of Hangzhou Xihu Beer Asahi Co., Ltd. (the remaining 55%) and Zhejiang Xihu Beer Asahi Co., Ltd. (the remaining 25%). By the end of 2011, we had a market share of over 20% in China's beer market and an annual sales volume of approximately 10,235,000 kiloliters, further strengthening our position as China's largest brewer in terms of volume. Remarkable achievements were also seen in various aspects, such as increased average selling price and operating profit, thanks to our strategies of widening product mix and boosting premium product sales.

During the year under review, our food division has further strengthened its " $\underline{\pi}$, $\underline{\mathbb{B}}$ Ng Fung" brand, which features premium food quality and safety, by stepping up its efforts in brand promotion and marketing. To maintain our competitive edge during the year under review, we continued to enhance our integrated quality supply chain, optimize our product mix and add value to our products. The Group's assorted foodstuff operation also expanded its market share in China by making inroads into a number of provinces.

With our strategy of focusing resources on developing selected target markets to form the backbone of our future nationwide distribution network, our beverage division recorded sustained growth momentum in overall sales volume and established a stronger market position in 2011. In addition, we are confident that our joint venture with Kirin Holdings Company, Limited, bringing together the Group's extensive distribution capabilities in China and Kirin Holdings Company, Limited's outstanding product development capabilities, will help make the division a powerful contender in China's non-alcoholic beverage market.

Prospects

Looking towards 2012, we expect the operating environment in China to remain challenging, with consumer sentiment still affected by volatility in the global economy, primarily the unfolding sovereign debt crisis in Europe. Nevertheless, backed by a rising disposable income per capita as a result of steady economic growth and the Central Government's initiatives to promote consumer spending in its "12th Five-Year Plan", we believe that the consumer market in China will continue to demonstrate relatively stronger resilience to short term market fluctuations and remain optimistic about the development of the country's retail market in the long run.

The Group has successfully built its market leadership in its core businesses through strategic expansion of market share and delivering steady business growth in the past 10 years. This track record has proven the strength of our strategy of national expansion that emphasizes strong regional leadership and synergistic opportunities with our core businesses. In the coming year, we will continue to reinforce our market leading position in China by taking advantage of our strong presence both nationally and in regional markets, as well as our extensive distribution network, reputable brands and diversified product portfolio. We will also seek out investment opportunities in a prudent manner so as to further expand our business, and maintain a tight grip on expenses as we enhance the economies of scale of our operations.

Building on the strong consumer business platform that we have created over the years and our proven strategy of market expansion, we are well positioned to create increasing value for our shareholders.

Appreciation

Lastly, on behalf of the Board, I would like to take this opportunity to thank our valued shareholders, customers and business associates for their trust and unwavering support. I would also like to thank our management and staff for their dedication and wholehearted commitment.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

Retail

The Group's retail division recorded turnover of HK$70,088 million and attributable profit of HK$1,736 million in 2011, representing an increase of 27.1% and a decrease of 10.1% year-onyear, respectively. Excluding the after-tax revaluation surplus, the attributable profit of the division in 2011 would have decreased by 2.7%.

The Group's retail division mainly consists of supermarkets, "中藝 Chinese Arts & Crafts" stores, "華潤堂 CR Care" stores, "采活 Vivo" health and beauty stores and "Pacific Coffee" shops. As at the end of 2011, the Group operated around 4,000 stores in China, of which approximately 78% were self-operated while the rest were franchised.

During the year under review, the home purchase restrictions imposed by the central government had dragged down property prices and transaction volumes in some of the major cities in China. At the same time, the lackluster performance of the stock markets in China triggered a contraction of wealth nationwide. Despite the recent decline in the consumer price index in China, inflation remains high as food prices continue to rise. As a result, consumer sentiment has been affected. Benefiting from the rising prices of consumer goods during the year under review, same store sales of our retail division increased by 10.9% year-on-year. The Group's retail division strives to provide the best products to its customers and will continue to enrich its product mix so as to meet the customer demand such as consumption habits and preferences in all localities. The division is also in the process of renovating its stores and upgrading store layout with the aim of enhancing the shopping experience of customers while implementing marketing and promotional campaigns to boost customer flow at the same time.

During the year under review, the increases in minimum wage levels in different regions have exerted pressure on the labor-intensive retail industry. In addition, the Urban Maintenance and Construction Tax and Education Surcharges imposed on foreign enterprises have pushed up the operating costs of the Group's retail division and influenced its short-term operating profit. In response to these developments, the division has carried out various measures to control costs such as leveraging its economies of scale, modifying operational flow, enhancing operational efficiency, as well as minimizing energy consumption and inventory wastage.

To further enhance the market share in China's retail industry, the Group's supermarkets and specialty stores have established their new stores in various new markets such as Hunan and Chongqing, adopting a strong regional multi-format business model that will form a solid foundation for future business growth. However, as new stores require time to adapt to the consumption habits of local customers while facing fierce competition from local retail operators, certain new stores have yet to generate profit in their initial stages of operation. The Group's retail division will engage in a wide range of initiatives to accelerate improvements in operational performance in the new markets. These initiatives include building networks in the new regions, reviewing product mix and operational strategy, optimizing supply chain management, emphasizing the recruitment and training of talent, upholding exemplary standards of management and operational efficiency and fostering the synergies of different business formats.

Besides, the Group's retail division entered into an agreement in July 2011 to acquire a 100% interest in Jiangxi Hongkelong Department Store Investment Company Limited ("Hongkelong Department Store") at a consideration of RMB3,690 million. Hongkelong Department Store is a competitive retail chain operator in Jiangxi Province. Through the acquisition, the Group immediately expands its retail business into Jiangxi Province and gains an advantageous market position in the region, thereby further enhancing its network and competitiveness in China's retail market.

China's "12th Five-Year Plan" places great strategic importance on boosting domestic consumption and transforming the structure of China's economic growth, a shift that represents a long-term impetus to China's retail industry. Furthermore, rising personal incomes and the increased threshold for personal income tax have boosted consumer spending, which have in turn stimulated sales of daily consumer goods such as fresh food and other food products.

Looking ahead, the Group's retail division is committed to its strategy of national expansion with an emphasis on strong regional leadership and creating synergies with its multi-format business platform. In addition to stepping up its efforts in developing the mature markets to consolidate its leading market position, the division will also accelerate its expansion into third-to-fourth tier cities, as well as into counties, towns and villages.

Beer

The Group's beer division recorded turnover of HK$26,689 million and attributable profit of HK$785 million in 2011, representing year-on-year increases of 23.9% and 14.6%, respectively.

During the year, the Group's beer division continued to strengthen its sales network, enhance its services at points of sale, and adopt sales strategies tailored to specific market segments so as to boost sales. However, during the third quarter of the year under review, a traditional peak season for beer sales, an unusual number of rainy and cloudy days and higher-than-normal levels of rainfall recorded in the Yangtze River Delta region, of which being one of the leading markets, has affected the Group's overall growth of beer sales. In 2011, the Group's beer sales volume increased by 10% to approximately 10,235,000 kiloliters. This has marked a milestone for the division as its sales volume has reached over 10,000,000 kiloliters for the first time. In 2011, sales volume of the Group's national "雪花 Snow" brand was approximately 9,172,000 kiloliters, approximately 90% of the total sales volume. The Group's beer division has a market share of over 20% as at the end of 2011 and our "雪花 Snow" brand beer has been the best-selling single beer brand in China in terms of sales volume for seven consecutive years*.

Further industry consolidation intensified market competition of beer industry in China. The rising costs of primary and secondary raw materials, together with higher labor costs and the Urban Maintenance and Construction Tax and Education Surcharges imposed on foreign enterprises, have driven up operating costs. By leveraging its economies of scale, the Group's beer division further enhanced its procurement, production and energy efficiency to relieve cost pressures. In addition, the division made a concerted effort to enhance product mix and to lift sales of premium beer products, which in turn raise average selling prices and stabilize profitability.

*According to the research statistics of China Alcoholic Drinks Industry Association(中國釀酒 工業協會) To further consolidate its leading position in China's beer market, the Group's beer division continued to enhance its production capacity by building and acquiring new breweries as well as reconfiguring and expanding its existing breweries. The division's newly acquired breweries in Liaoning, Jiangsu, Henan, Shanghai and Guizhou commenced operation during the year under review. As at the end of 2011, the Group operated around 80 breweries in China with an aggregate annual production capacity of more than 15,300,000 kiloliters.

Looking ahead, the Group's beer division will continue to promote the "雪花 Snow" brand with "The Great Expedition" ("勇闆夭涯") marketing series with the aim of enhancing its brand reputation and customer loyalty to the brand. The beer division will foster cooperation with suppliers and enhance its sales network to strengthen its leading position in the market. At the same time, the division will continue to seek and evaluate investment opportunities in a prudent manner while pursuing organic growth in order to achieve greater market share and to consolidate its leading market position.

Food

The food division reported turnover of HK$10,706 million and attributable profit of HK$278 million in 2011, representing an increase of 28.9% and a decrease of 33.5% year-on-year, respectively. Excluding the net revaluation surplus and after-tax profits from the reduction of certain equity interests in its strategic investments, the division's attributable profit would have decreased by 18.1% year-on-year in 2011.

During the year under review, the rising price of pig feeds and the market supply of live pigs resulted in higher costs of live pigs. With higher costs of procuring live pigs, raw materials and labor, as well as lower consumer demand for pork arising from higher pork prices, the business environment for China's meat industry has become challenging, thereby affected the division's operating profit. In order to maintain its competitive edge, the division enhanced the integrated quality supply system for livestock raising, slaughtering, meat processing, cold storage and trading to points of sale, while at the same time continued the enhancement in product mix and value-added products.

Benefiting from the synergy with its livestock raising business in China, the division's livestock distribution operation in Hong Kong maintained its leadership in market share. However, the rising cost pressure of mainland imported live pigs was not able to be absorbed in a short period of time and has affected the operating profit for the year under review.

Through active promotion and marketing of the " $\underline{\mathcal{L}}$ by Fung" brand, the Group's assorted foodstuff operation recorded a satisfactory growth in its operating results during the year under review. By setting up sales branches in Wanan, Hefei and Shanghai, the division's frozen food and ice-cream operation made further inroads into Zhejiang nearby markets of Jiangsu and Anhui. The operation also enhanced the market share and brand reputation in Jiangsu by launching various marketing and brand promotion activities, which in turn increased both sales volume and profitability.

The operating profit of the marine fishing and aquatic products processing operation was affected by the rising diesel price during the year under review. Leveraging its trading platform for aquatic products in Hangzhou and Shanghai, the division expanded its deep-sea aquatic product business in China under the " \pounds Ng Fung" brand, boosting its brand reputation in this market. Looking ahead, China remains a key market for the growth of the Group's food division. Upon completion of the organization restructuring and team building according to its strategic plan in the year under review, the division will swiftly focus on enhancing its operational efficiency, speed up its development strategy and seek to strengthen and expand its business in China through acquisitions.

Beverage

The beverage division reported turnover of HK$3,112 million and attributable profit of HK$126 million in 2011, representing an increase of 49.6% and a decrease of 18.7% year-on-year, respectively. The decrease in attributable profit was mainly resulted from the diluted earnings contribution as a result of the formation of a joint venture with Kirin Holdings Company, Limited ("Kirin Holdings") in mid-August 2011. On the other hand, the formation of the joint venture resulted in a net cash consideration received by the Group of approximately HK$3.2 billion.

With its flagship "怡寶 C'estbon" brand of purified water, the Group's beverage division recorded total sales volume of approximately 2,642,000 kiloliters in 2011, representing an increase of 34.5% year-on-year. During the year under review, the division's strategy of focusing resources on developing selected target markets paid off. Our beverage network now covers all of Sichuan, while Hunan has become our second largest market after Guangdong. Moreover, the division's "加林山 Jialinshan" mineral water operation modified and consolidated its distribution channel and introduced lightweight packaging. Sustained sales volume growth delivered gross profit growth, which in turn alleviated most of the pressure from rising packaging and other operating costs. In a move designed to further enhance the brand awareness of the "怡寶 C'estbon", the division entered into a strategic cooperation agreement with the Chinese National Table Tennis Team, for which "怡寶 C'estbon" was made the exclusive official provider of drinking water for the team.

Pursuant to the establishment of the joint venture, the existing products of "麒麟 Kirin" operation have started to be sold in China through the division's extensive distribution channels, realizing the synergy from shared resources. The beverage market in China continues to show considerable growth potential and is paving the way for the sustained development of the Group's beverage division. Riding on the division's extensive distribution capabilities in China and complemented by the extensive product portfolio, operational and technical expertise, as well as excellent product development capabilities of Kirin Holdings, the division will be transformed to a powerful contender in China's non-alcoholic beverage market.
